

1. Dharma refers to moral duties, ethical conduct, and righteous living that maintains social and cosmic order.
2. The Vedas are ancient Indian scriptures containing knowledge about rituals, philosophy, and early scientific ideas.
3. Ayurveda is mainly about using modern antibiotics and surgical robotics developed in recent centuries.
4. Yoga is a competitive sport created in the 21st century primarily for entertainment and social media influence.
5. Guru-Shishya Parampara is a system where students learn only through online videos without any teacher interaction.